

Book Review Sources

A book review (as distinguished from a critical study) is an evaluation of a book appearing in a newspaper or periodical, usually shortly after the book's publication. Sources listed below will provide you with a citation to the book review or a full-text book review.

Book Review Digest Plus

Book Review Digest cites and provides full-text reviews of current English language fiction and non-fiction books. It excludes textbooks, government publications, and technical books in law and the sciences. For book reviews published prior to 1983, use the paper version of Book Review Digest (INDEX Z 1219. C96) located on the first floor of Bishop Library. Book Review Digest Plus is also available from the library's homepage, under the online databases link.

America: History and Life

Reviews books related to American History. America: History and Life is also available from the library's homepage, under the online databases link.

Art Full Text

Provides reviews of books in the art field. To limit your search to art book reviews only, first click on ART in the lower RH corner. Next, click on the document type arrow and choose book review. Art Full Text is also available from the library's homepage, under the online databases link.

Business Full Text

Provides reviews of books in the business field. To limit your search to book reviews only, click on the document type arrow and choose book review. For business book reviews published prior to 1982, use the paper Business Periodicals Index (INDEX HF 1 .B87) located on the first floor of Bishop Library. Business Full Text is also available from the library's homepage, under the online databases link.

Education Full Text

Provides reviews of books in the education field. To limit your search to book reviews only, click on the document type arrow and choose book review. For book reviews published prior to 1983, use the paper version of Education Index (INDEX L 11 .E38) located on the first floor of Bishop Library. Education Full Text is also available from the library's homepage, under the online databases link.

Humanities Full Text

Provides reviews of books in the humanities. To limit your search to book reviews only, click on the document type arrow and choose book review. For book reviews published prior to 1984, use Humanities and Social Sciences Retrospective, 1907-1984. Humanities Full Text is also available from the library's homepage, under the online databases link.

New York Times (Current)

Offers full-text books reviews found in the NYTimes from 1980 to the present. To limit your search to book reviews only, click the more search options tab; under document type, choose book review. NYTimes (Current) is also available from the library's homepage, under the online databases link.

New York Times (Historical)

Offers full-text books reviews found in the NYTimes from 1851 to three years prior from the current year. To limit your search to book reviews only, click on the more search options tab; under document type, choose book review. NYTimes (Historical) is also available from the library's homepage, under the online databases link.

Social Sciences Full Text

Provides reviews of books in the social sciences. To limit your search to book reviews only, click on the document type arrow and choose book review. For book reviews published prior to 1984, use Humanities and Social Sciences Retrospective, 1907-1984. Social Sciences Full Text is also available from the library's homepage, under the online databases link.